Role Purpose

The purpose of this role is to provide expert legal advice and support in the area of financial markets law, with a primary focus on the ongoing legal monitoring of regulatory developments and the creation and updating of country-specific cross-border manuals. These manuals are designed to ensure that both domestic and international clients remain compliant with relevant financial market regulations of foreign markets.

The position is ideal for individuals who are enthusiastic about engaging in a dynamic industry and collaborating with a diverse team, as well as counsels abroad. This role provides the opportunity to develop specialized expertise in the financial market regulatory frameworks by meticulously maintaining and enhancing legal resources.

Additionally, the role involves leveraging AI tools to support and streamline the maintenance and enhancement of compliance materials, while keeping up to date with evolving regulatory requirements and technological developments.

Reporting Lines

This role will report to a Senior Legal Advisor or Head of Department. Regular communication with senior management and other team leads is expected to ensure alignment on legal matters and regulatory initiatives.

Key relationships

The successful candidate will engage directly with

- > Peers and other members of the legal team
- > Outside counsel and legal experts
- > Key stakeholders occupying legal and compliance roles with domestic and foreign clients.

Collaboration and effective communication with these groups are essential for ensuring the consistent application of regulatory standards and the successful resolution of complex legal matters.

WE offer

- > An exciting and dynamic position in the international financial market environment, right at the pulse of RegTech and AI
- > A versatile portfolio of tasks, which includes assessing and monitoring of regulatory developments with regard to cross-border financial activities (in particular licensing requirements), drafting and updating our regulatory products (e.g. cross-border manuals) as well as advising and providing support to our clients
- > The opportunity to work on RegTech and AI projects/solutions
- > A well-working team of lawyers, attorneys-at-law, and specialists in Switzerland and abroad
- > The opportunity to be part of an interesting, challenging, and rapidly developing industry and to interact with domestic and foreign clients and specialists in the field
- > Modern offices in a central location in Zurich or Geneva

YOU offer

- > A law degree from a Swiss or European university
- > Relevant professional experience in the field of financial markets law (e.g. as in-house counsel or compliance officer in the financial sector, in the legal profession, or in consulting)
- > An open, flexible, and team-oriented personality
- > Interest in RegTech and financial market regulations; readiness and ability to quickly familiarise oneself with new topics (on-the-job learning)
- > A quick grasp, intrinsic motivation and an independent, service-oriented, entrepreneurial and hands-on working style
- > The ability to well and precisely draft legal texts in English; French and/or German desirable; every additional language skill is a plus.

Company Values

aosphere Company Values are important to us. We hire all of our employees with a focus on our people-centric values: Supportive, Friendly, Trust, Flexibility, No Big Egos.

This role in particular will require:

- > Professionalism (appropriateness with words, behavior, and approach)
- > Integrity (honesty and clarity in all dealings with all)
- > Ability to maintain the strictest confidentiality with all people data
- > Communication Skills (clarity and professionalism with all communications)
- > Embrace and Drive Change (particularly as the Company moves to the future-state)
- > Resilience (the ability to adapt to challenges and change; and help others within the team to do the same)
